

POWER PICTURES!

Where do you see real girls with real moxie? On TV? In movies or magazines? In your local newspaper? On the internet?

Have you ever seen a picture of a girl about your age who has done something with such energy, courage, determination and know-how (remember that definition on page 7?!), that she has excited and inspired you to do something, too?

Pictures can be powerful. Cut out pictures of these "moxie girls" who have inspired you. Then, make an inspirational collage that you can look at as you take your journey when you are in need of a little boost!
