Travel & Global Community

Girl Scouts love to travel and explore the world—from field trips as Daisies to globe-trotting adventures as teens. Girls love exploring different places and cultures, either up close or from afar. They'll meet interesting people, explore unique places, and make memories to last a lifetime.

Skill-building Categories include:

Travel (Local, U.S., International, Service)

Girls gain heightened levels of independence through planning their travel experience, seeing the sites, trying something new, and finding solutions to challenges that are likely to arise in unfamiliar locales.

Topics include: planning and preparedness for travel, exploring different modes of transportation, understanding basic language and logistics in foreign places, giving service to communities in need

Understanding Cultures

Girls are exposed to cultures that are different from their own, increasing awareness, acceptance, and appreciation.

Topics include: family customs and holiday traditions, languages, clothing and personal image, important symbols, world religions, ethnic foods

Global Issues

Girls gain an understanding of social justice issues around the world, and are inspired to make a difference.

Topics include: girls'/women's issues, education, health care, poverty, violence
