

Mary Ann Beebe Center

17501 Streit Road, Harvard, IL 60033

Activities
1	Gaga pit
2	Archery
3	Adventure Walk
4	Crate Stacking
5	Sports Court
6	Zipline

Map Legend
	Black top Road
	Gravel Road
	Trail
	Latrine
	Parking
	Dining Shelter
	Campsite
Vegetation Color Guide
	Mowed Area
	Brush/Long Grass
	Dense Trees/Forest
Bodies of Water
	Lake
	Wetland

girlscouts
of northern illinois

girlscoutsni.org/campwithus

Mary Ann Beebe Center Bird Hunt

What kind of bird likes fish? A _____! Where would you find a real one?

This tall bird watches Girl Scouts zip by! What other bird do you spot by the pond? _____

This small, colorful bird watches over a target range where you need safety glasses. What target sport is she watching? What colors are found on this bird? _____

This red bird sits among a target range made of tin! What kind of bird can you find at this range? _____

Hike the trail past archery, and you may find two of the three short-necked, chartreuse, _____ birds, just like the camp song!

Is there more than one pond at Mary Ann Beebe Center? Travel up the path where you might find a baby shark and a swimming bird! What kind of bird do you see? _____

This bird is busy helping the camp ranger at the barn! What kind of bird do you see? _____

This bird lives in the most famous units by the Girl Scouts! What bird do you see living among the yurts? _____

This blue bird is hanging out in the tall oak trees. If only she could borrow a hammock from the Valley Adirondacks! What kind of bird do you see? _____

If you hike the path between the Adirondack units, you may see a windmill and a feathery friend! What colors can you spot on this bird? _____