

Cadette, Senior, & Ambassador Community Service Bar Application And Service Hour Log

There are three types of Community Service Bars that girls are eligible to receive:

- The Cadette Girl Scout Community Service Bar (Red)
- The Senior Girl Scout Community Service Bar (Orange)
- The Ambassador Girl Scout Community Service Bar (Yellow)

Follow these steps toward earning and acquiring the Community Service Bar:

1. The Girl Scout identifies the organization for which she would like to volunteer.
2. The Girl Scout approaches the organization to convey interest in volunteering, gain understanding of the organization's needs, explain the requirements for this Award and decides to proceed.
3. The Girl Scout completes a minimum of 20 service hours. This does not include a training period, if required by the organization.
4. Use this Time Log to record the volunteer hours.
5. The Girl Scout obtains approval from the organization's representative on the Time Log.
6. The Girl Scout submits the Time Log to the Troop Leader for final approval, with her signature.
7. The Troop Leader or parent submits the Community Service Bar Application and Service Hour Log to customercare@girlscoutsni.org for council records.
8. GSNI Program sends the Girl Scout a certificate congratulating her.
9. The Troop Leader or parent can purchase the Community Service Bar at any GSNI Retail Stores.

There are three types of Community Service to Girl Scouting Bars that girls are eligible to receive:

- The Cadette Girl Scout Community Service to Girl Scouting Bar (Red)
