

Business Ethics

Girl Scouts are honest and fair in everything they do, especially when it comes to selling cookies. If you are honest and fair, your friends, classmates and teachers will count on you and think of you as trustworthy.

When you act in any of the ways that the Girl Scout Law suggests, how are you acting like a responsible business owner? Get together with your sister Girl Scouts or friends and see what they say. Pick your favorite value of the Law and lead the way.

I will do my best to be honest and fair,
friendly and helpful,
considerate and caring, courageous and strong, and responsible for what I say and do, and to respect myself and others, respect authority,
use resources wisely, make the world a better place, and be a sister to every Girl Scout.

Many companies offer a business pledge or promise to their customers, that states how they will treat people and ensure they are offering a quality product.

Write your own promise to your customer. Think about the Girl Scout Promise and Law.
