

Samoas Shout!

We are the Girl Scouts, hear us shout!
And we've got the cookies that you can't live without.

We've set big goals and we need your support
So step up and take a shot, the ball is in your court.

Our families and our friends have helped us get this far,
But we need YOUR help now, you know who you are!

Knockin' door-to-door, talkin' on the phone or stockin' your work
You'll all be flocking to buy the greatest cookies in the world.

So if you get a text from me, your order to complete
Reply and I'll deliver the treats that'll knock you off your feet.
